ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷ Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. ³⁸ Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."

10 Jesus called his twelve disciples to him and gave them authority to drive out impure spirits and to heal every disease and sickness.

² These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon (who is called Peter) and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; ³ Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴ Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

⁵ These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Do not go among the Gentiles or enter any town of the Samaritans. ⁶ Go rather to the lost sheep of Israel. ⁷ As you go, proclaim this message: 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' ⁸ Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, ⁹ drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give.

Message from Fr. Derek

Dear family of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini,

In our Gospel today Jesus sends out his 12 apostles on mission to cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons and do much more. By our baptism, each one of us is commissioned to go on mission. We are missionaries by our very baptism and as missionaries, our mission territory does not necessarily have to be in distant lands that have not heard the Gospel. Our mission territory begins at home, it begins by bearing witness to those we live, work and serve with.

The apostles could not carry out this mission on their own but only with the grace of the Holy Spirit. We are empowered by the sacraments to go forth in the power of the Holy Spirit on mission. Take a step out in faith today as you discern how the Lord is asking you to live out your call to mission.

Have a Blessed Week!

Your Servant in Christ,
Fr. Derek

Javier Ros

Javier Ros became a parishioner at Holy Name of Jesus in 2017. He grew up in South Florida in a Catholic family and has been active in his Faith since High School. Over the years, through the influence of Pope Benedict XVI, Javier has developed a strong devotion to the Liturgy and how through it Jesus redeems all dimensions of the human person. As an active member of the parish, he cantors the Chant Masses on Saturday Mornings during Lent and Advent, recently joined the Knights of Columbus and has given several talks at the Parish Level including the recent Creed series. He now lives in Satellite Beach with his wife Nathalie, his 3 boys and a baby girl on the way.
