JUNE 21, 2026

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven. (Matthew 10:26-33)

Message from Fr. Derek

Dear family of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini,

Throughout its history, the Church has always faced persecution in some shape or form. In the Gospel today, Jesus warns his disciples that they will face persecution but they do not need to be afraid. The only thing we need to fear is not being in a state of grace due to our sins. We need to fear only those who kill the soul, not the body. When we live in a state of grace in relationship with God we do not need to live in fear of anything, including persecution. We must also be courageous to witness to our faith even in the face of persecution. Evangelization has taken place through the centuries because of the courage of Christians who witnessed boldly to their faith.

Are we ready to boldly stand up for the Gospel and witness to the truth? Remember the words of Jesus in today's Gospel, "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father." May we be bold and courageous disciples of Christ.

Have a Blessed Week!

Your Servant in Christ,

Fr. Derek
